INVITE SHIR LE TO SPEAK

---

Shir le enjoys speaking at conferences, congregations, home fellowships or special gatherings large or small. Here are some guidelines to follow in inviting Shir le to speak.

---

SPEAKING FEES

---

Shir le does not set a minimum fee to speak at your event. She believes that our Heavenly Father will provide for all our needs. As a result, Shir le speaks on a "love offering" basis.

---

TRANSPORTATION

---

Shir le generally travels with her husband by car, and does not ask to be reimbursed for these driving expenses. In the event she has to fly to a speaking engagement, the host is expected to take care of those transportation expenses. Either she or the host may book the travel. If she books the travel, the host is expected to reimburse Shir le for her travel expenses.

---

LODGING

---

The host is expected to provide lodging and pay for the lodging expenses for Shir le's speaking event. She is flexible to stay at a local hotel or at the private home of her hosts. Again, for your consideration she generally travels with her husband.

---

FOOD

---

Shir le likes to eat a wide variety of Biblically clean foods; however, please keep in mind that she is wheat and dairy sensitive.

TEACHING RESOURCES

---

Typically, Shir le will bring teaching or resource materials to her speaking event to sell to her speaking audience to aid them in their Spiritual journey. Usually, a small table is needed to sell these products.
